Exploring Our Proud Heritage

May 13, 1983

Dear Leslie,

To help support N.C.W. I accomplished what I wanted to do as stated in my advance report.

I set up a display in the entry way of the New Lenox State Bank. In my display I had various numismatic collectables for the general public to view. It is interesting to note that people either have a passion for coins or could care less. There didn't seem to be any in between.

I was able to answer all questions that were asked. Although no one seemed interested in becoming an A.N.S. member at the time I did persuade several people to attend our club annual coin show on the next day, April 17th, and 2 people joined our club at the next meeting.

During the rest of the week I wore both the A.N.S. button and the C.W.N.S. button provided by the Regina Coin Club of Canada. Whenever someone would question me about them I would let them know all about coins (I love to talk about coins).

Our club's show was very successful. Although attendance was down slightly from previous years. Dealers that I questioned were quite satisfied with the amount of business that they had done.

Since I was exhibit chairman I was very pleased with the amount of exhibits (15) and the quality. The public was treated to a variety of displays, ranging from antiques to Confederate paper money.

I've been told that our club is the best in the state of Illinois and that we have more exhibits than any other show including the state convention.

Overall I think National Coin Week was a success in our area.

Thank you,
Mark Wieclaw
